

MIDWESTERN CONFERENCE ON INVESTIGATIVE GENETIC GENEALOGY - JANUARY 22-23, 2020

The Wichita Police Department is hosting a two-day conference with the “A-Team” of the revolutionary crime-solving technique of investigative genetic genealogy. Conference topics will include law enforcement’s use of IGG, use of public DNA databases, sample processing, genetic genealogy, prosecution, best practices.

GENE
BY
GINE

Dr. Barbara Rae-Venter,
Genetic Genealogist,
Pioneer IGG Technique
Bear Brook Murders,
Golden State Killer, and
twenty IGG Cases

Paul Holes, Host,
DNA of Murder, Oxygen
Former Investigator
Contra Costa County
Golden State Killer Case

Anne Marie Schubert,
District Attorney
Sacramento County
Golden State Killer/
NorCal Rapist Cases

John Shimp
FBI Supervisor
*Law Enforcement's
Use of Investigative Genetic Genealogy*

Dr. Connie Bormans,
Laboratory Director,
Gene By Gene
Law Enforcement
Registration Oversight
and Sample Processing

JANUARY 22, 2020
JANUARY 23, 2020
8:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.
Drury Hotel
400 W. Douglas
Wichita, Kansas

REGISTER NOW

ADDITIONAL SPEAKERS:

Greg and Heidi Miller, Family of Murder Victim Sherry Black
Chelsea Rustad, Genetic Witness, William Talbott Double Homicide