

WORK ETHIC + ENGAGEMENT: THE SUPERVISOR'S PLAYBOOK

SET THE STANDARD. SPARK THE PASSION.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Today's workplace demands more than just showing up—it requires leaders who can set clear expectations, model excellence, and inspire employees to fully commit to their roles. This dynamic 3-hour session blends a high-energy introduction to seven foundational workplace skills with a deep dive into proven strategies for building and sustaining employee engagement.

Supervisors will leave with a practical playbook for fostering a culture of accountability, respect, and enthusiasm—while unlocking the best performance in every team member.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Why work ethic matters and how it's developed.
- The Seven Foundational Workplace Skills: Attendance, Appearance, Ambition, Acceptance, Appreciation, Accountability, and Attitude.
- Practical ways to set expectations and model excellence.
- How to connect with employees as individuals.
- Strategies for creating meaningful work and career paths.
- Recognizing and removing common engagement barriers.
- Communication techniques that encourage openness and trust.
- Tailoring praise and recognition for maximum impact.

OBJECTIVES

Successful completion of this course will increase your ability to:

- Define and communicate the workplace behaviors that drive success.
- Recognize each employee's unique strengths and leverage them effectively.
- Minimize obstacles that reduce motivation and engagement.
- Build trust and respect through consistent leadership actions.
- Use recognition and feedback to inspire lasting commitment.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE!

701-662-1578

lrsc.trainnd@lrsc.edu

www.lrsc.edu

trainNE
NORTHEAST

